Clementine

In a cavern, in a canyon,
Excavating for a mine,
Dwelt a miner, forty niner,
And his daughter, Clementine.

Light she was and like a fairy,
And her shoes were number nine;
Herring boxes, without topses
Sandals were for Clementine.

Oh, my darling, Oh, my darling,
Oh, my darling Clementine,
You are lost and gone forever,
Dreadful sorry, Clementine.

Strangers Arrive!

"Say, Daughter, what's that thar big pile o' sandy-yellow stuff, yonder?"

"I don't rightly know, Paw, lessen it's one o' them thar new-fangled gold mines."

"Let's do a bit o' prospectin', Clem, and see what we can see!"

It's 1949, but down the old North Street Trail come two characters out of the old West of 1849, Clementine with her number-nine shoes, and Prospecting Pete, her "paw." Little do they suspect what nuggets of knowledge are being mined right here in B. H. S.

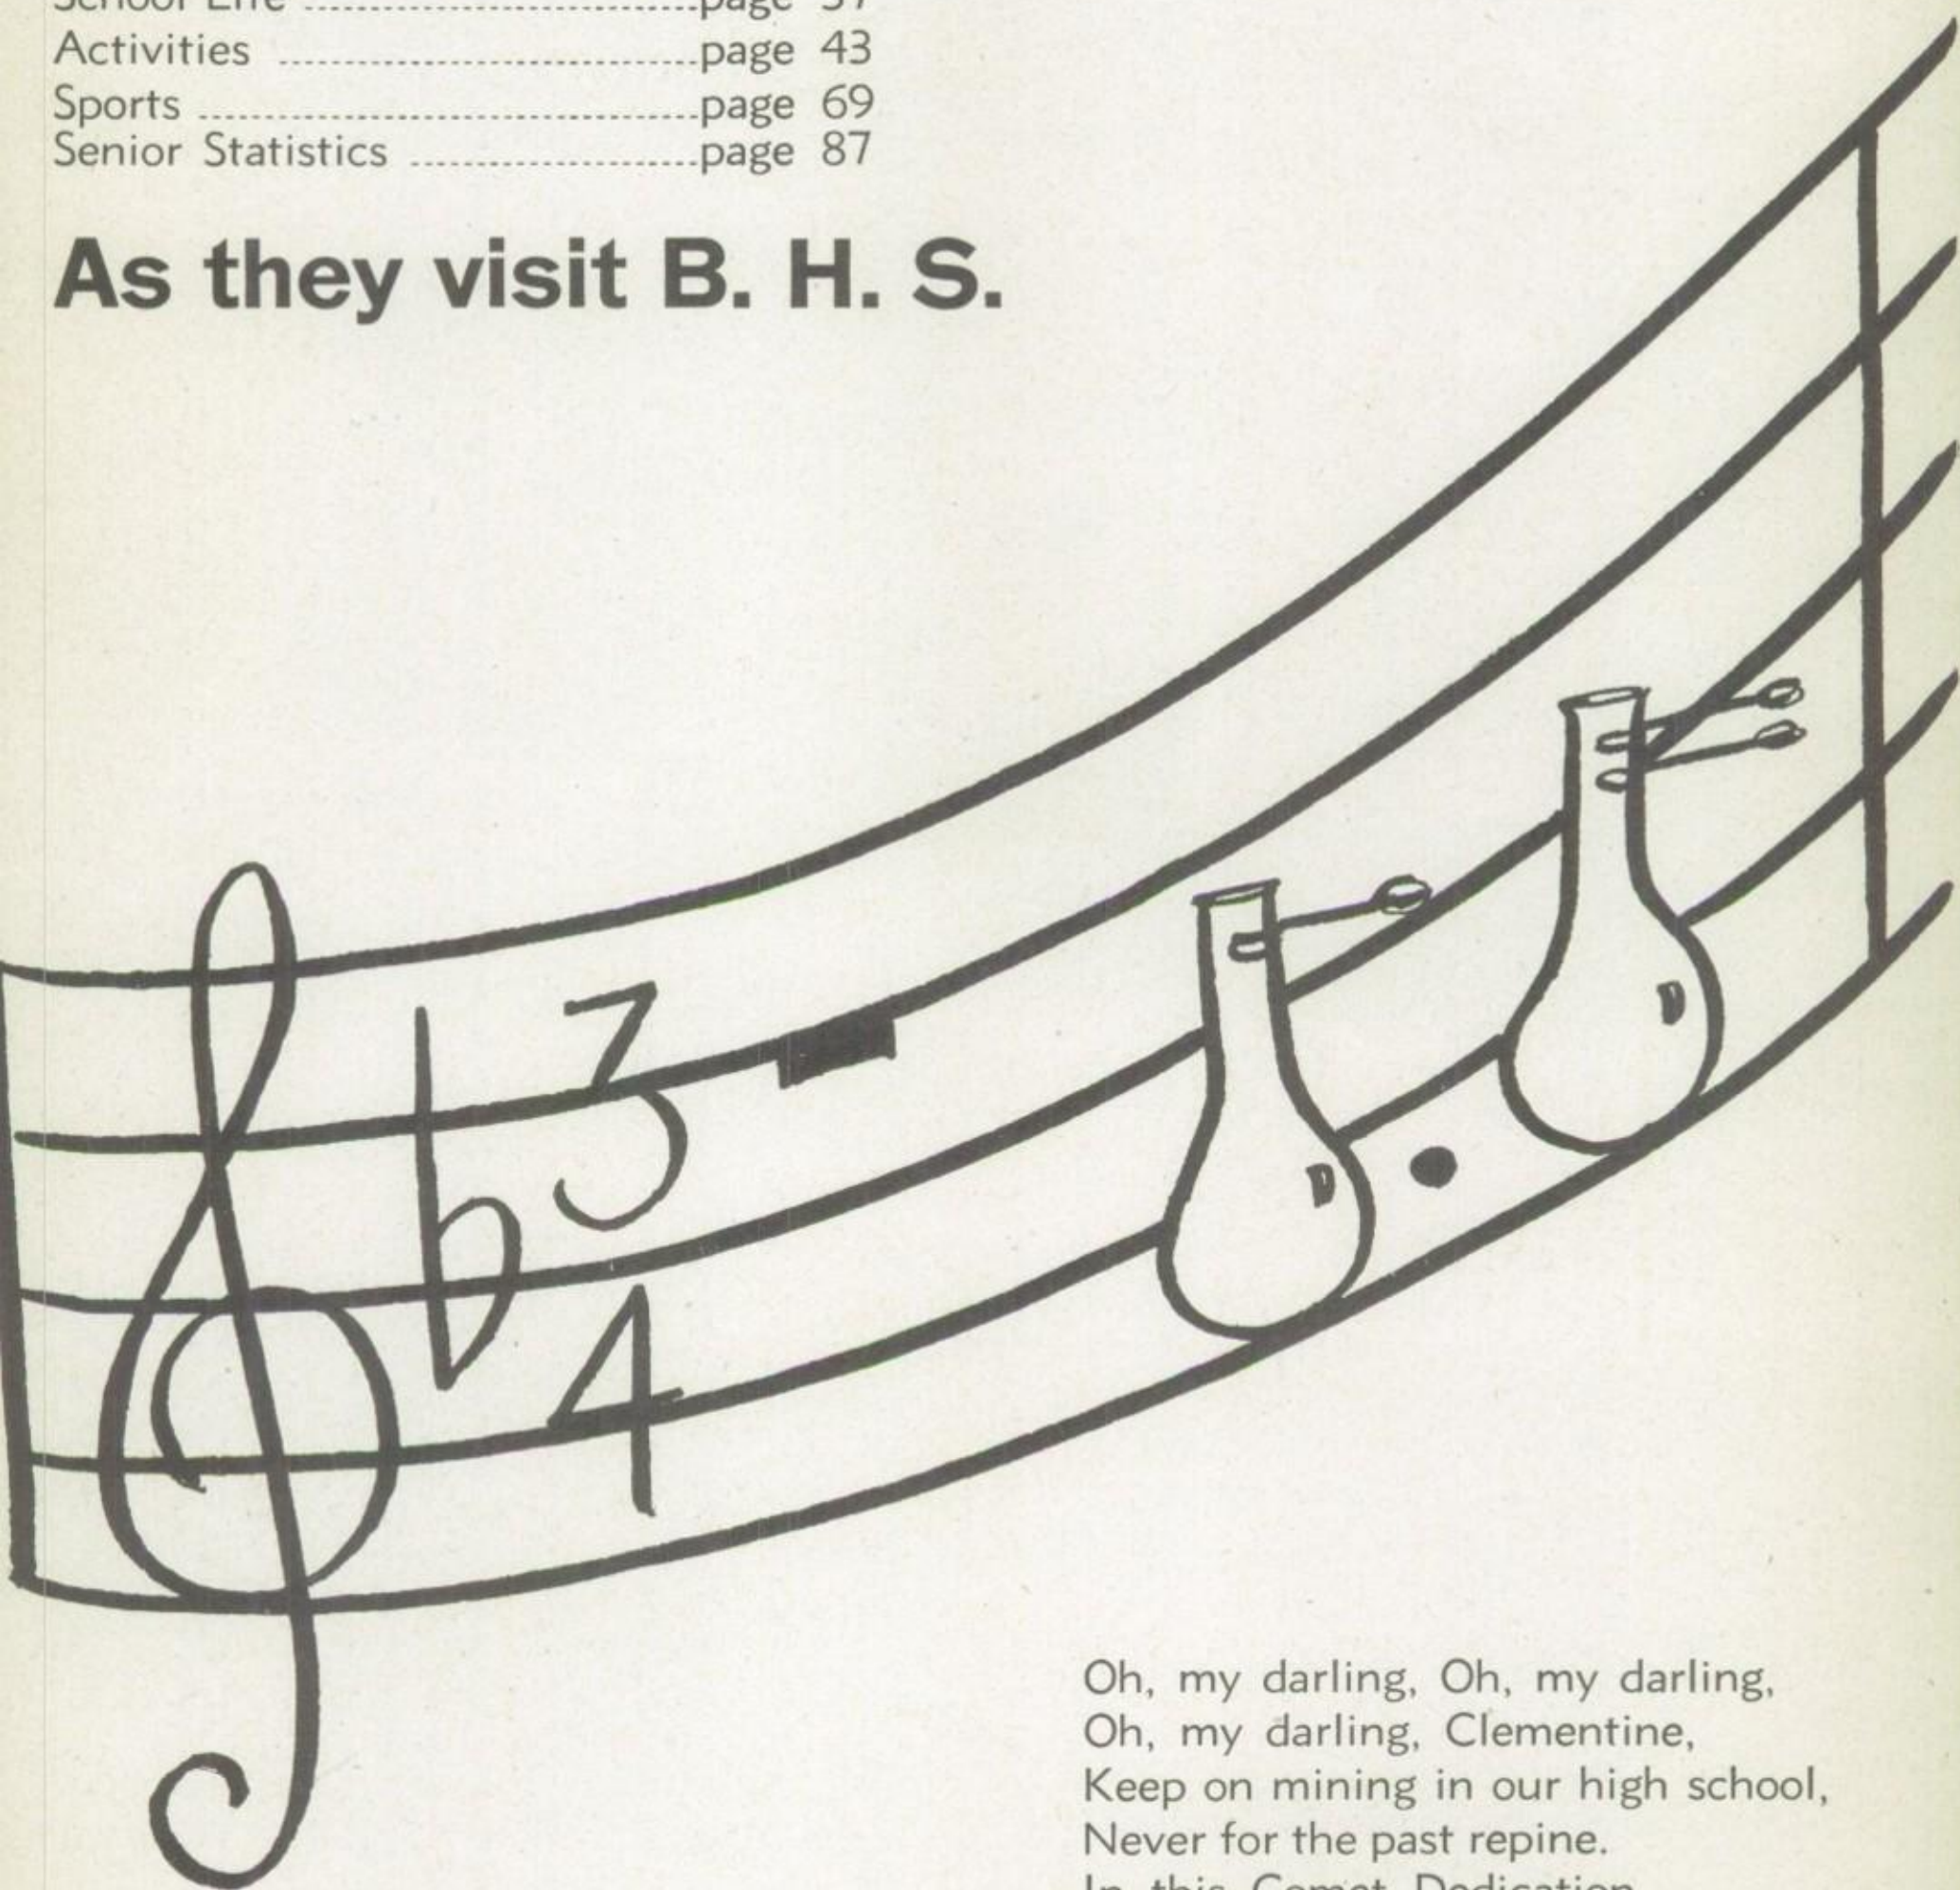

Clementine will find her long skirts are still in style, but Prospecting Pete will probably be puzzled to see all "them thar" husky young lads working hard with pencils and papers instead of with picks and shovels.

Both of them will discover—ah—but we have a whole book to tell of their experiences as the old 49'ers visit the present-day 49'ers.

As they visit B. H. S.

Oh, my darling, Oh, my darling,
Oh, my darling, Clementine,
Keep on mining in our high school,
Never for the past repine.
In this Comet Dedication
Mr. Wolfe we introduce;
You will like him and the others
That for you we now produce.

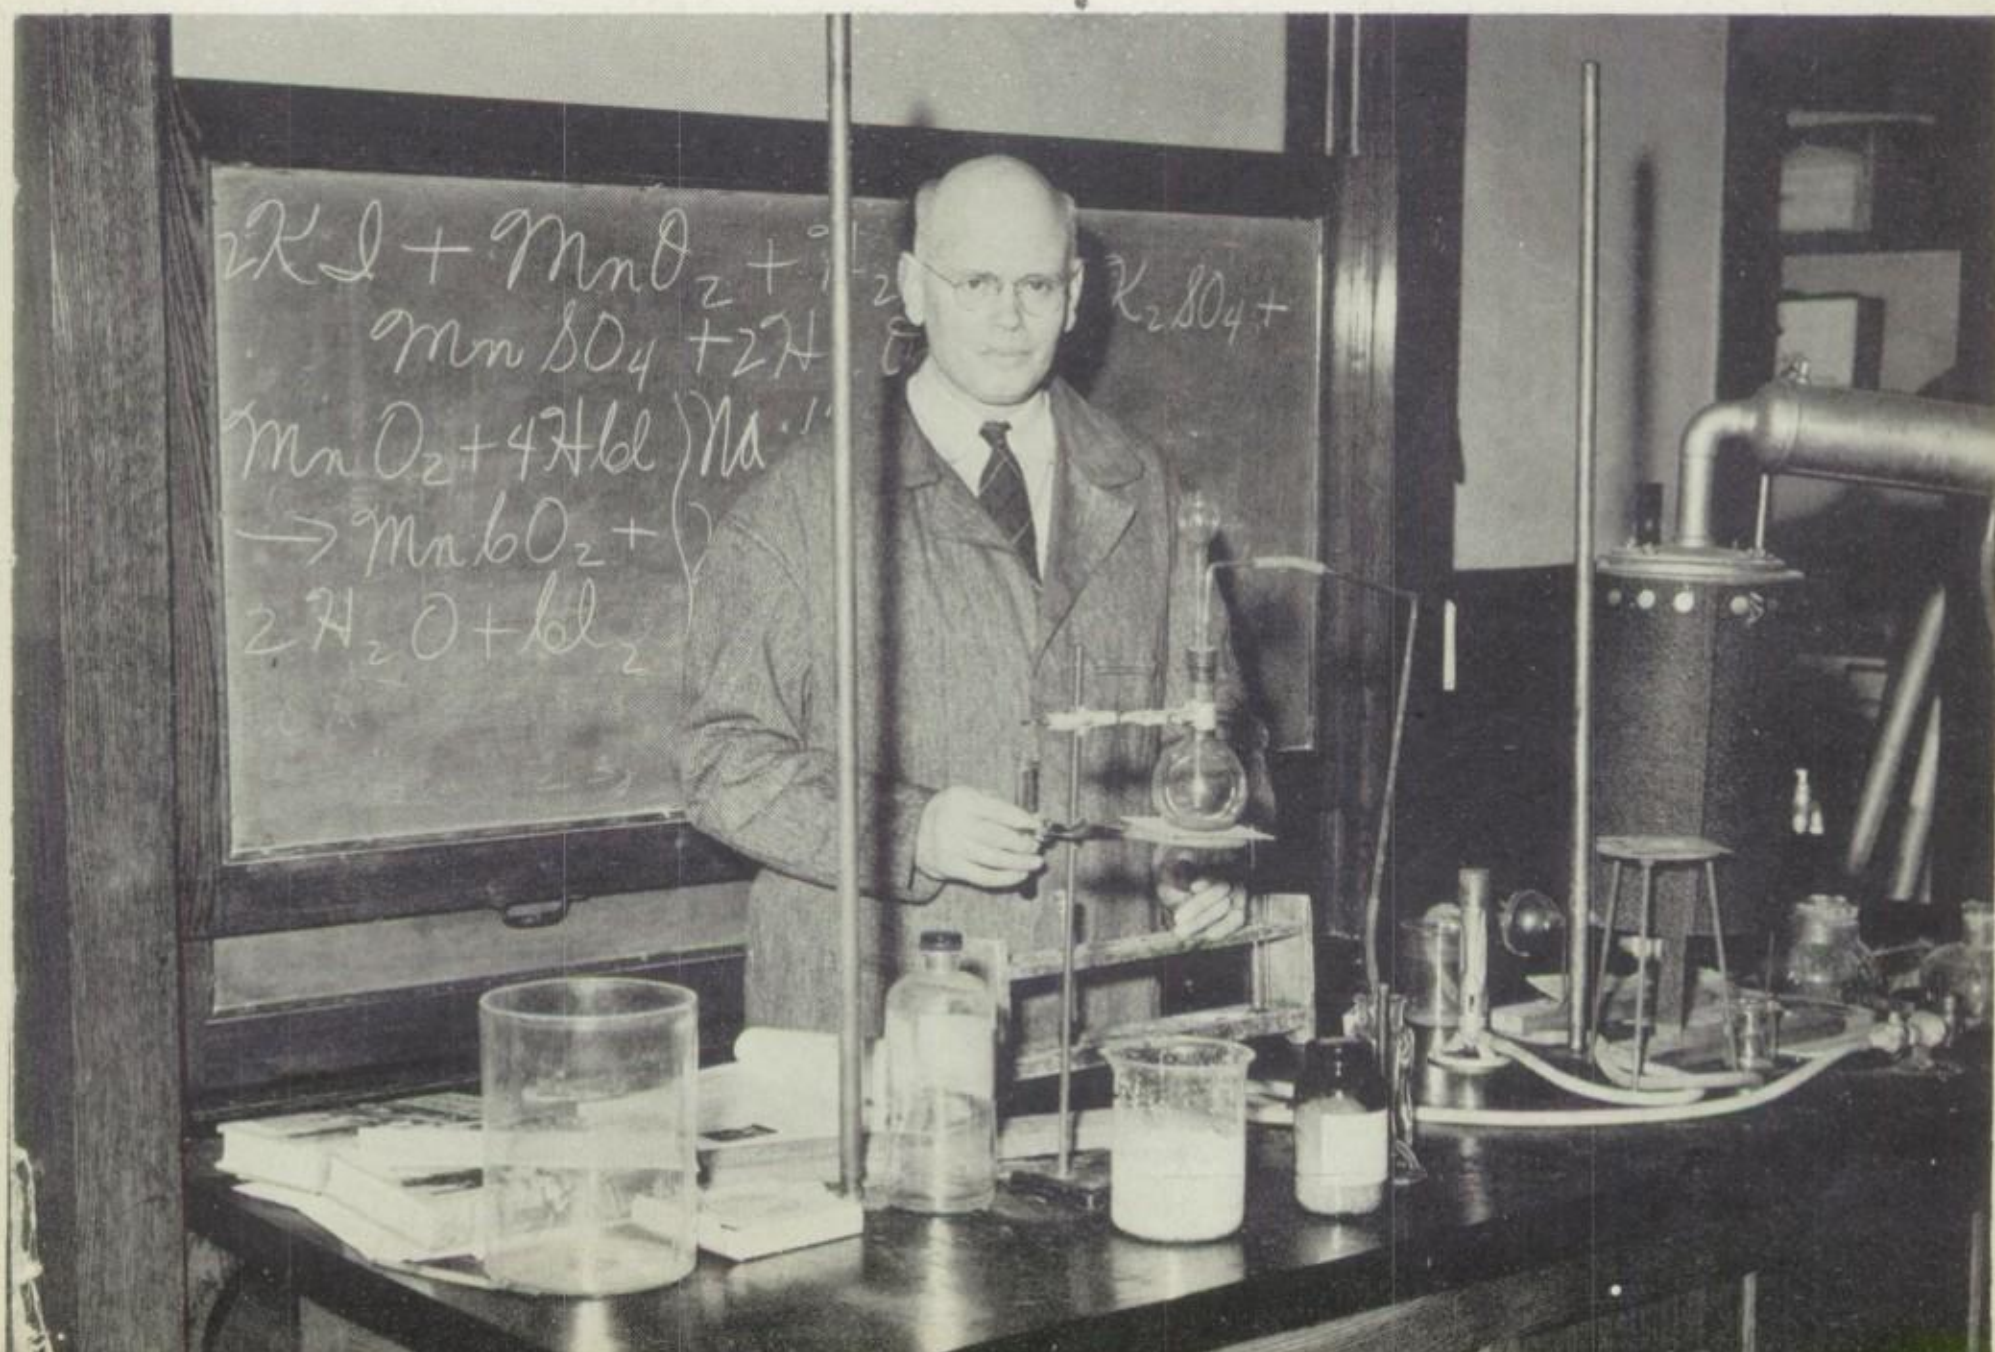

WE DEDICATE THIS COMET

TO that kindly prospector who seeks and finds those nuggets of human character in the boys and girls he leads along the trails of science, . . .

TO him who helps the young men of the B.H.S. Hi-Y club along the paths of success, . . .

TO him who guides the graduating class through their last year of high school, . . .

TO HERBERT E. WOLFE

1849 could offer no view like this

From a 1949 airplane was photographed this view of a portion of the community to which come Clementine and Prospecting Pete. In the right center may be seen the large Bellevue High School "mine" as well as the smaller "mine," the Junior High. Near them is the U.S. Post Office.

South of the "Old North Trail" lies Route 20 along which many modern forty-niners travel westward. Here Route 20 is lined with what Clementine calls "trading posts"; and east of them she may find the public library, rich with nuggets of information.

Do you know your reading, writing?
Can you figure, Clementine?
We've got teachers who can help you
Get your "larnin," Clementine.

There's nothing left for me
Of days that used to be.
Their mem'ries will remain
Among my souvenirs.

Some books that helped us through,
A photograph or two
Will aid us to review
Our years at Bellevue High.

We wish friends that are here
Success for coming years.
Although our past will fade,

1948 PROM—THE BAND

1948—APRIL SHOWERS

"April Showers" came to B.H.S. on April 22 of last year when the gym, gaily decorated with bright umbrellas and sporting a wishing well, was crowded by the classes of '48 and '49 for the annual Junior-Senior Prom. Don Yingling's spring "dream" featured entertainment by members of the class including the "Heart-Throbs of '49," who dedicated their song "Babyface" to the basketball captain, Dean Todd.

1949—HEAVEN

Harps, angels, clouds, and heavenly music all helped carry out the "Heaven" theme of the annual Junior-Senior Prom, April 29. After entering the Golden Gate and signing their names with St. Peter, the couples danced the evening away, pausing for entertainment and refreshments. Blue, gold, and white were used to create the "Heavenly" effect.

Clementine and her paw did a bit of prospecting over at the Junior High too.

They heard enthusiastic students exclaim about their own Music Festival under the direction of Arch B. Krumm. Among the soloists were Shirley Wagner (pianist), Michael Strazuiso (saxaphonist), and Marva Young (vocalist). The seventh grade sang Negro spirituals, while the eighth grade presented a variety of songs. The Junior High Band, under Nathan L. Rosenthal's direction, presented several numbers.

In the magazine campaign this year, the Junior High School had three super-salesmen: Jean Swenson, Marilyn Yoder, and Pat Logan.

Paw thought it was a "right-smart" idea for the students to have their own bicycle repair shop and a picture developing room which was installed this year.

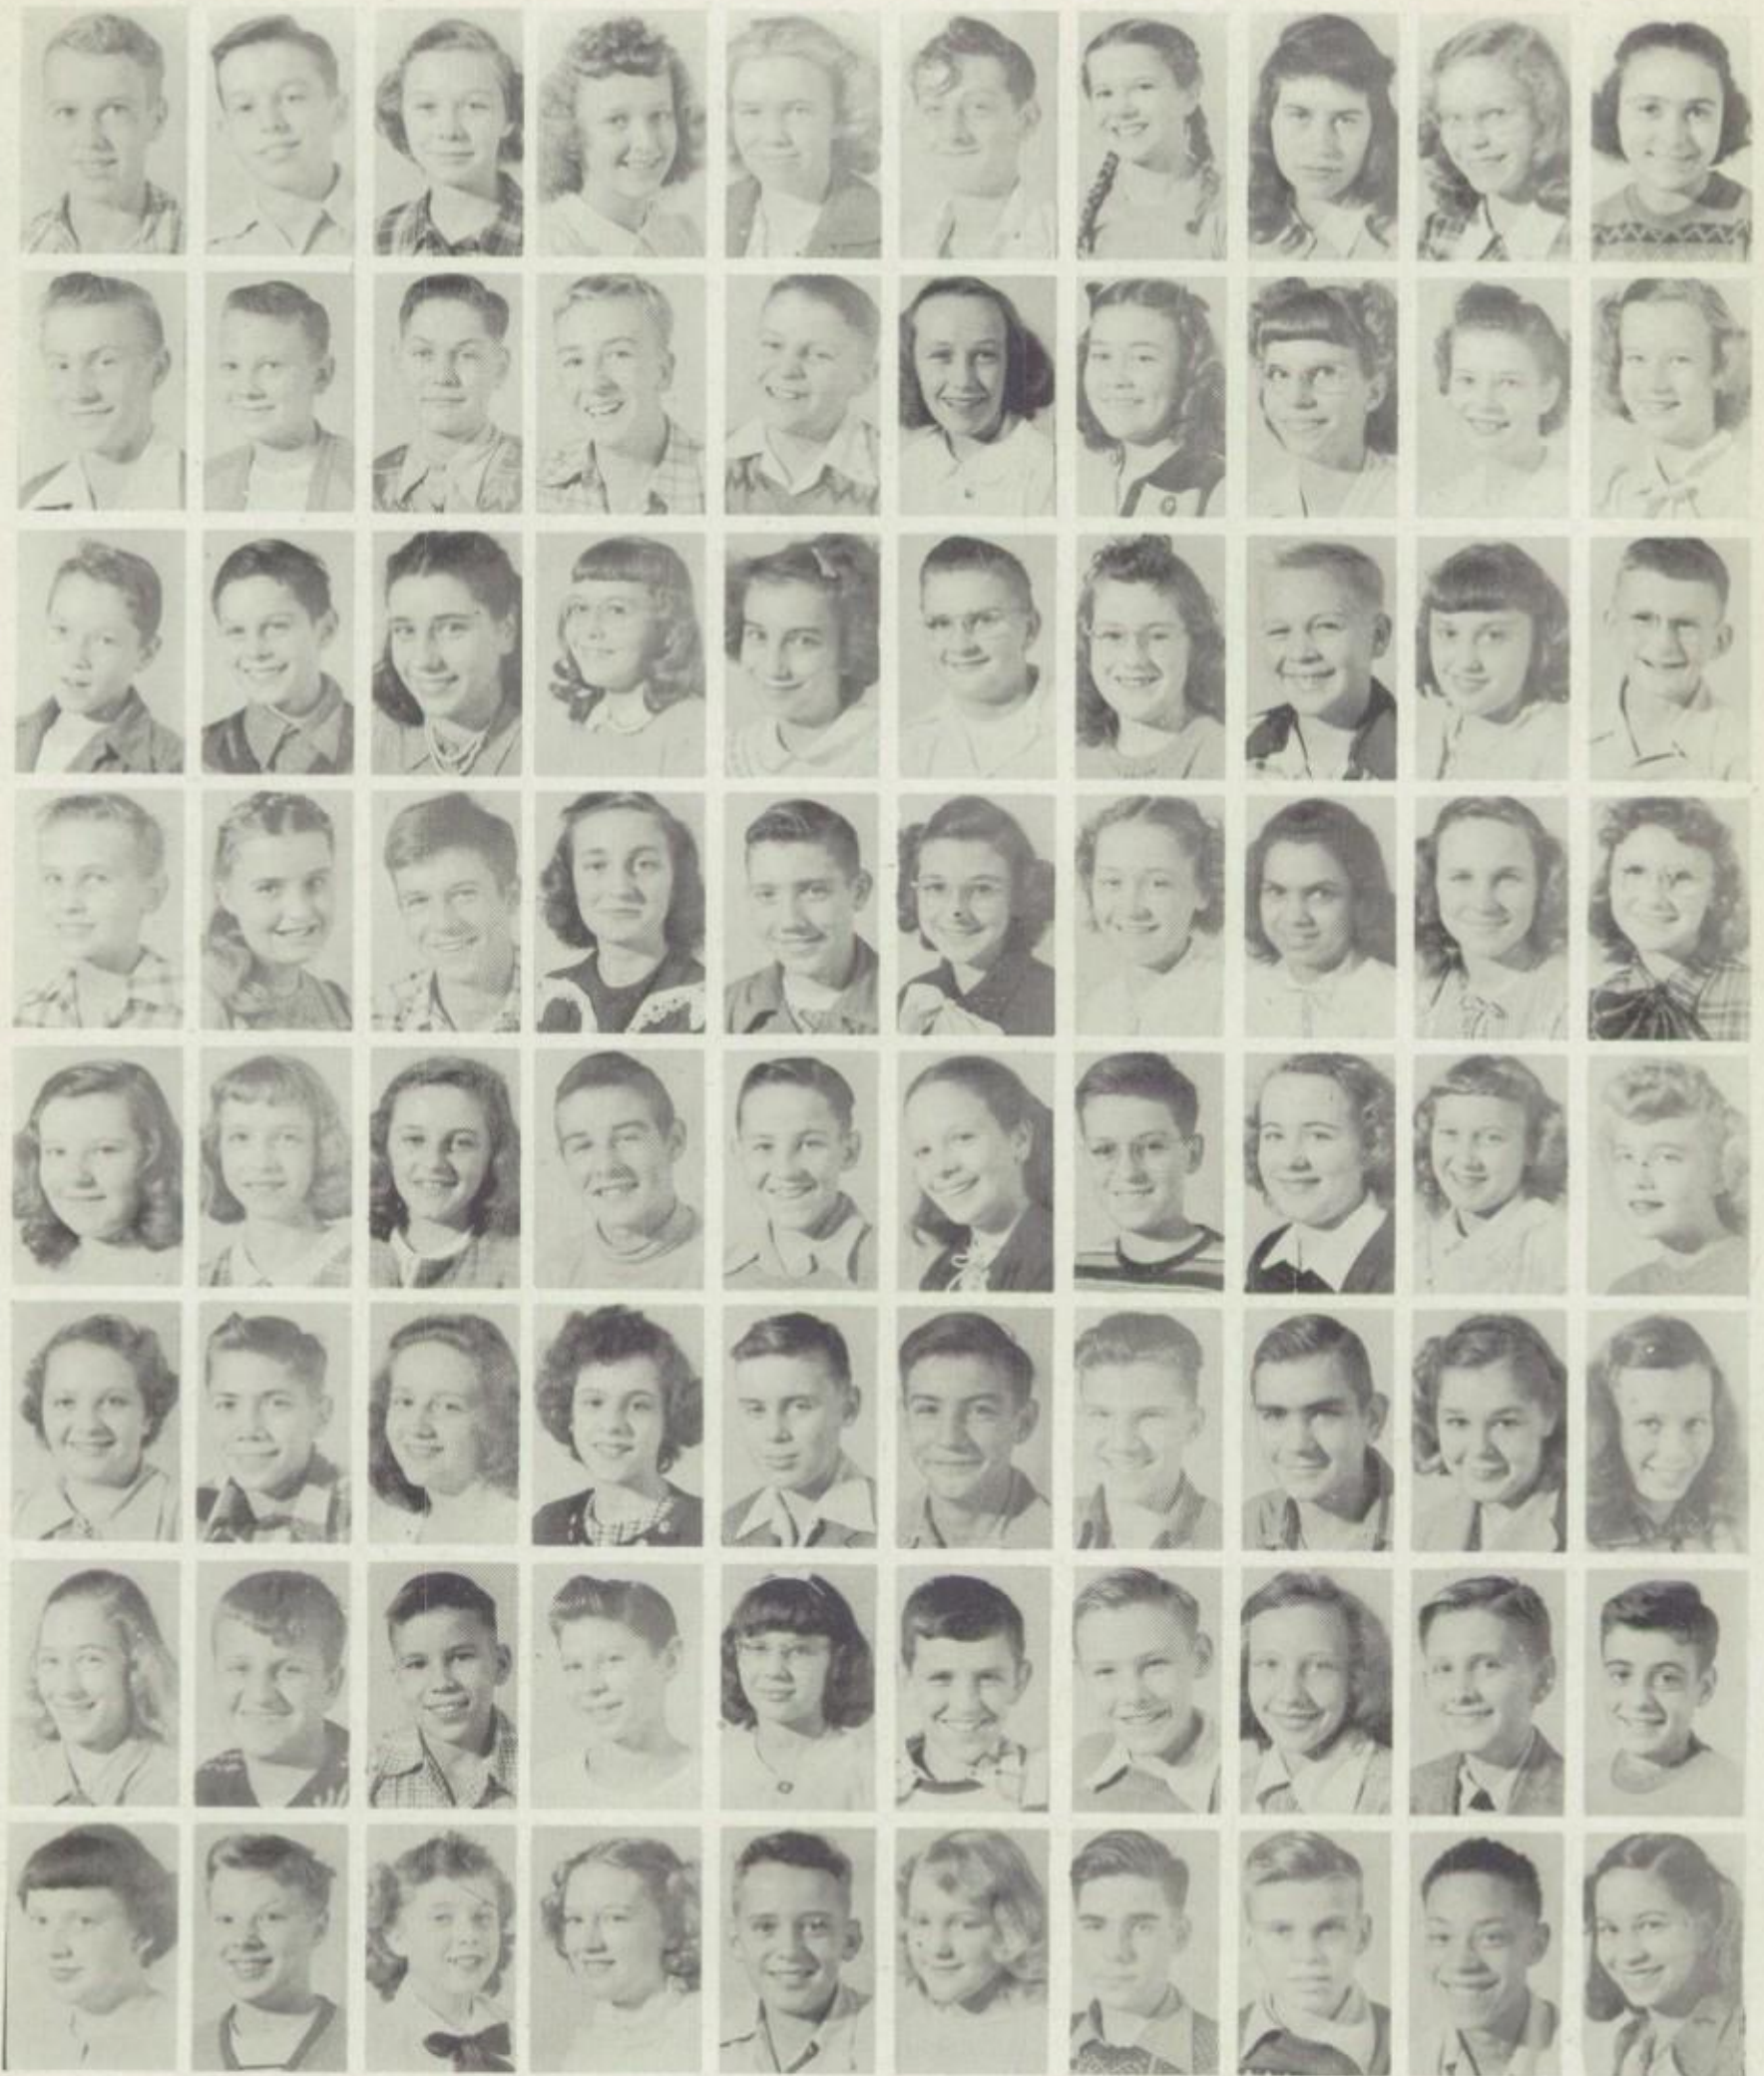

Clementine especially enjoyed watching the "young-uns" of the newly-resumed first grade at Junior High.

Look who's on the bottom of the heap!

Watch out for your fingers!

Around and around she goes.

Well, well-d!
Smooth sanding.

M-m-m-m! What a shapely leg!
Latin projects in review.

Busy future secretaries at work.

Speed and accuracy are stressed in typing class.

Learning how in home ec.

Making a sky for the dances.

Future atom smashers?

Is snow ice-cream good?

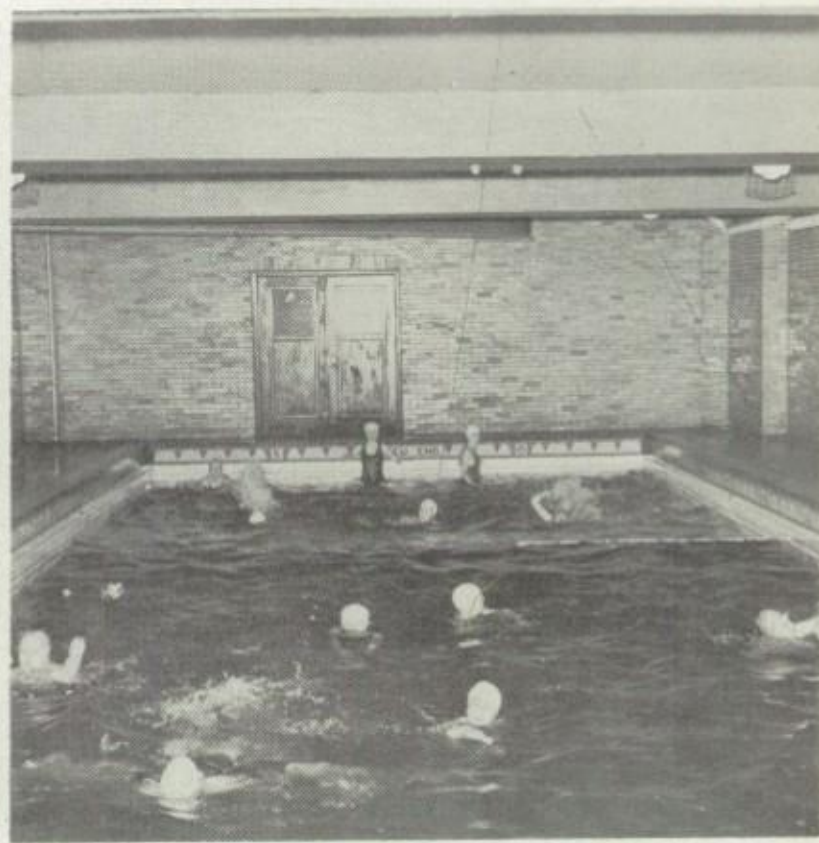

Note the musicians of the music theory class.

The slide-rule finds the answer in trig class.

They study hard in the library.
Who's behind that beard?

The "tossing tub"—where the gold is washed.
Starting the Grand March at the F.H.A. Christmas Formal.

Who let the photographer in here?

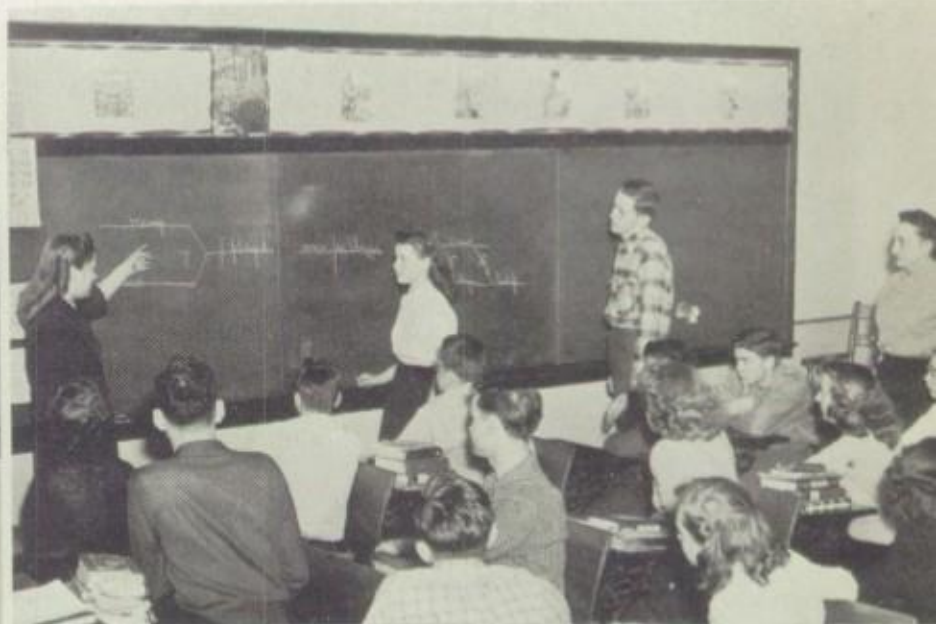

Here, catch!

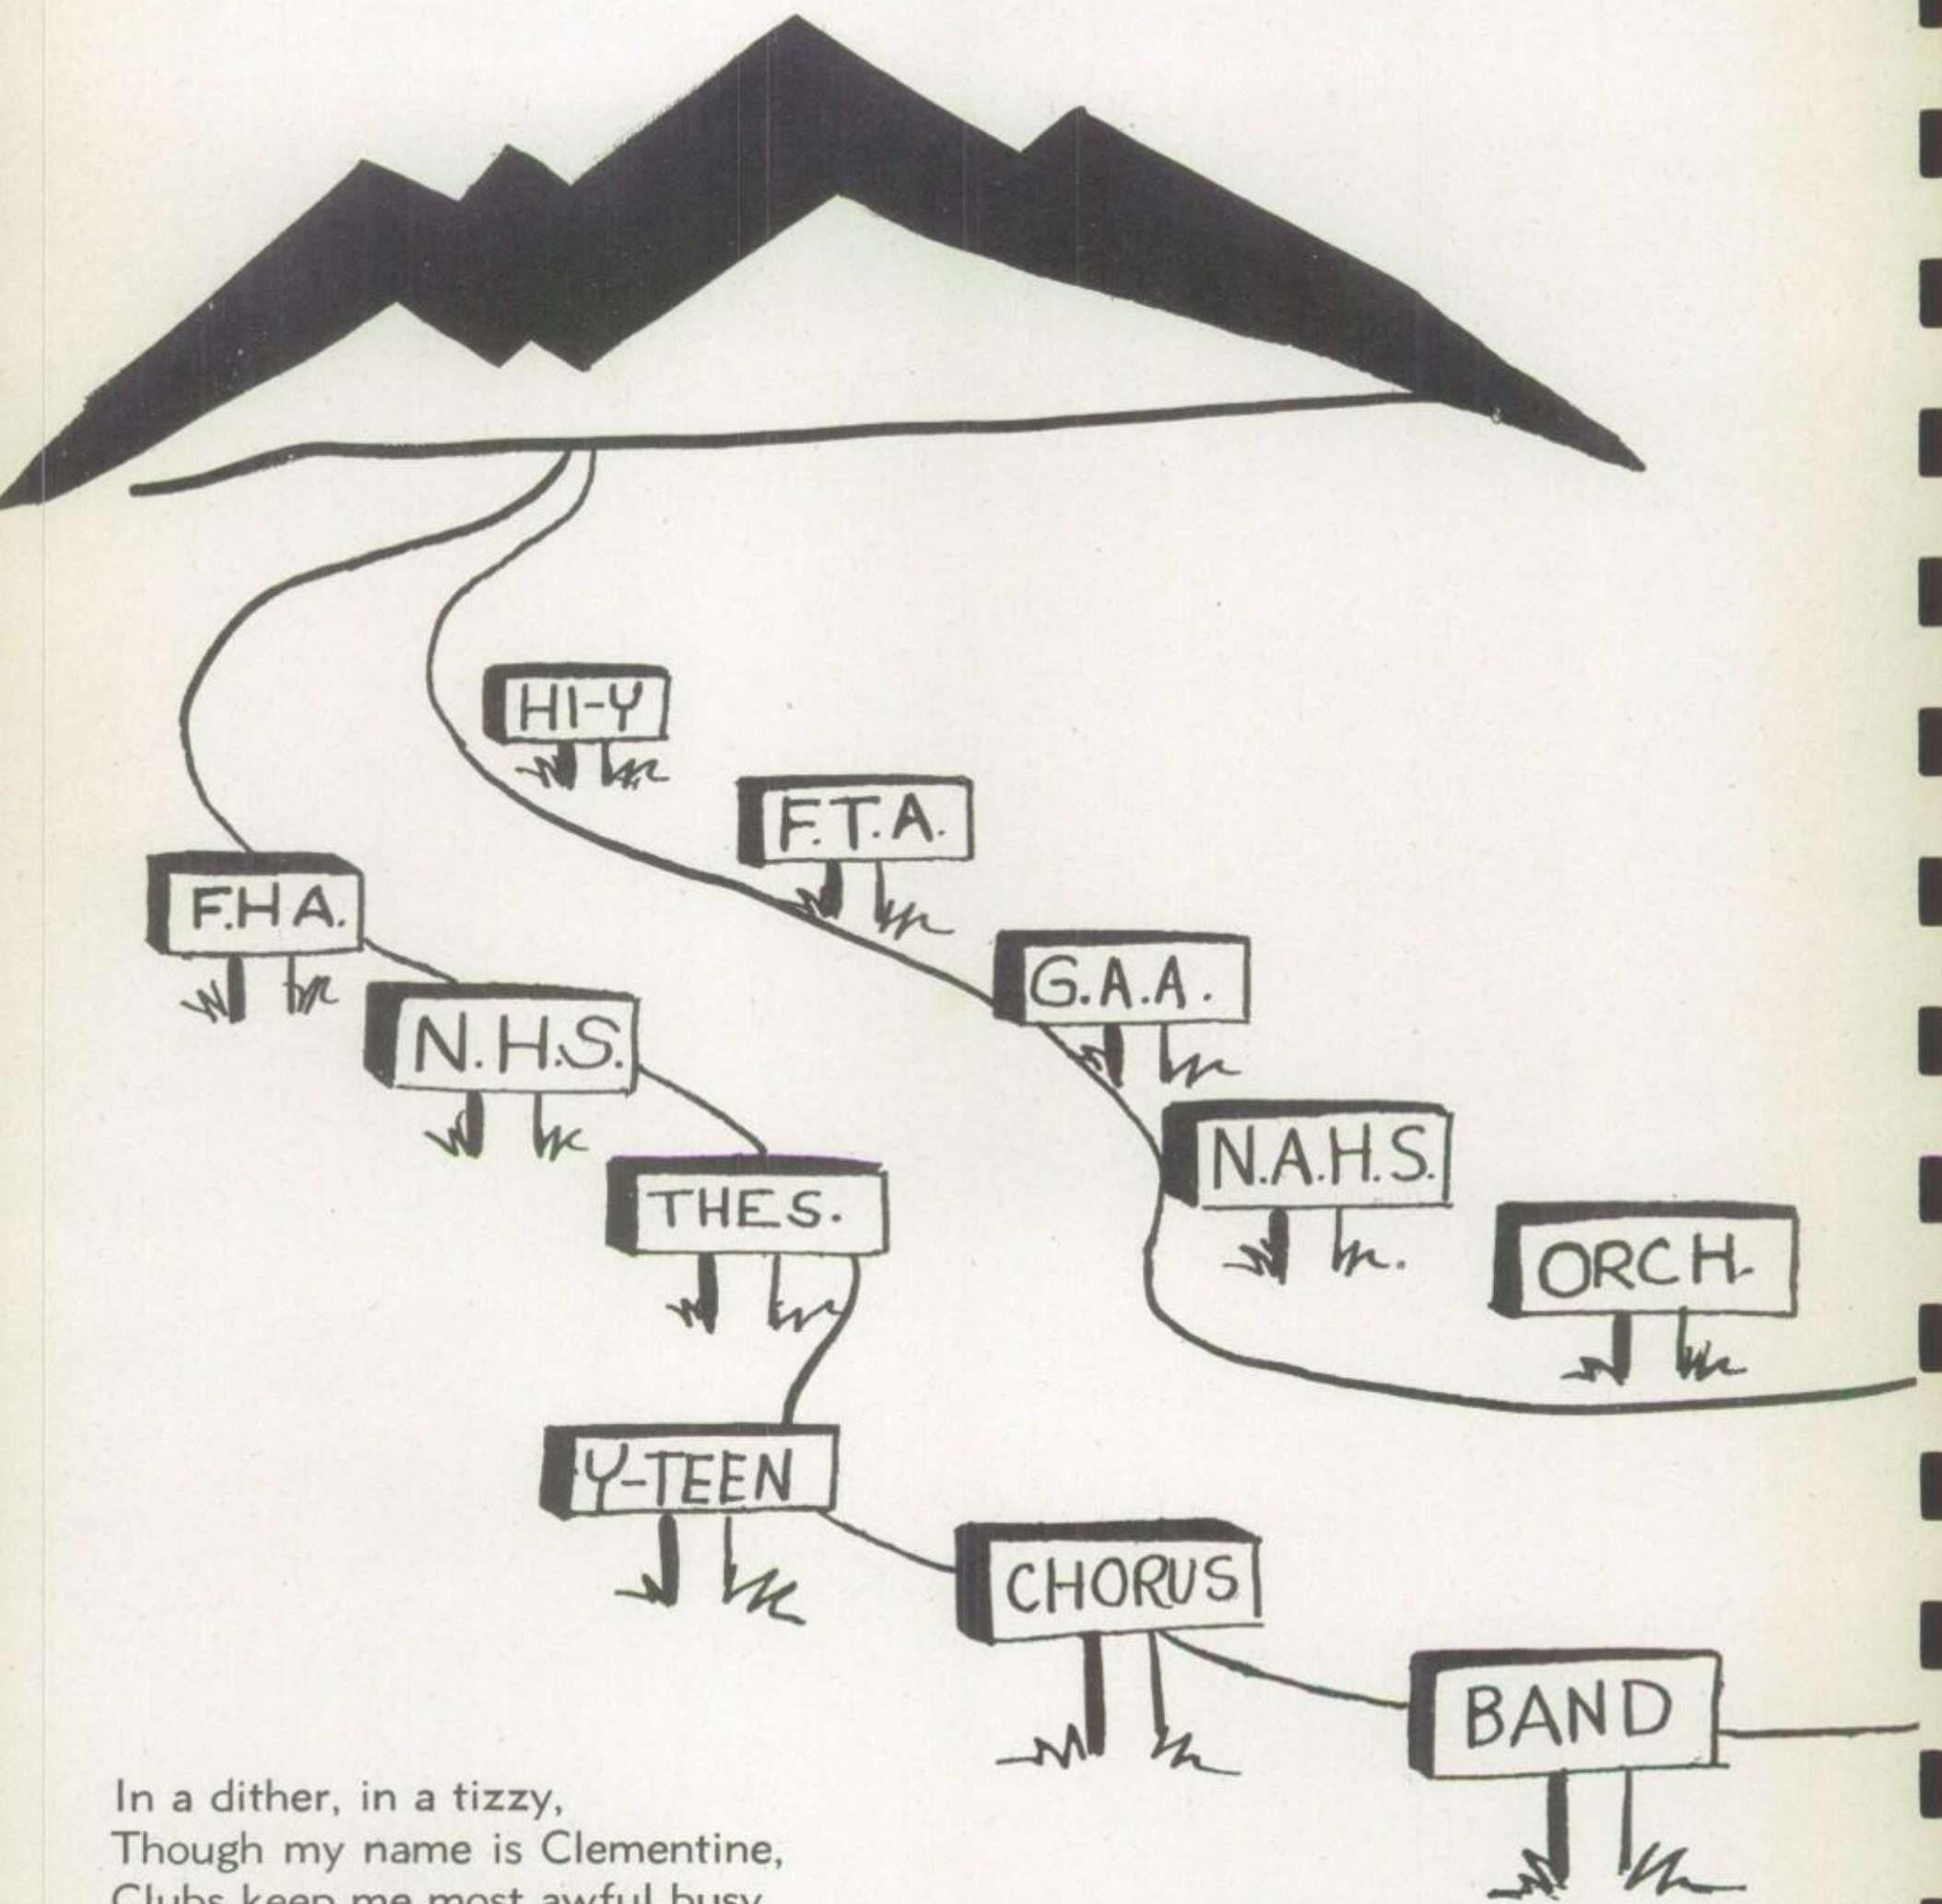

The art class, decorating the "mine" for Christmas.

Diagraming the anatomy of a sentence in freshman English class.

Hi! Won't you join us?

Clementine likes history, too!

THE COMET

When Clementine and Prospecting Pete come to the Comet workroom, they see stacks of layouts, written assignments, pictures, paste-pots, and staff members in a frenzy of activity. In all the hustle and bustle of writing copy, drawing the dummy and meeting deadlines, there is no one to show the guests around. They investigate and see for themselves that the editors, Donelda Christman and Marilyn Downs, with the help of an alert and hard-working staff are turning out one of the best of school annuals.

THE STAND

A grand total of 2160 hot dogs were devoured by the many football fans at the three stands this year at Harmon Field. The '49 seniors with the help of Miss Mary Cooper, adviser, and Donelda Christman, student manager, sold 1320 cokes, 1320 ice cream bars, in addition to candied apples, coffee, and candy.

A new stand set up at the east gate and one on the south side of the field along with the one at the west gate made it more convenient for the hungry spectators.

Clementine liked the hot dogs and cokes especially and told of the following workers she saw behind the counters:

SENIORS: Nancy Arnold, Barbara Bandy, Hazel Karg, Emily Arlin, Marilyn Downs, Irene Billie, Alice Beiler, Mary Ball, Bill Magers, Bob Meacham, Nancy Decker, Bill Dunn, Bob Stephenson, Luluann Knauss, Jean Smith, Tom Beard, Jean White, Katherine Pittenger, Joan Gibson, Betty Beiler, Beverly Cloud, Leona Claus, Juanita Bodey, Ruth Reigle, Charles Schott, Alice Hunter, Dolores Dupler.

JUNIORS: Charles Wright, Bob Raschke.

DIAL STAFF assay the news

Now, Clementine, don't think you 1849'ers are the only people who dig for treasure; members of the Dial staff dig for news and find it too! Sit down, make yourself comfortable, and read some of the newsy issues the staff members hold up for your inspection. (We hope you know the three R's, Clementine.)

Financed by a magazine sale, an occasional dance, or pop stand concession, the Dial is published every three weeks by a rotating staff of editors.

"This here, paw, must be the bunch that helps run B.H.S.; yes, sir'ee, paw, that thar' is a mighty smart-lookin' bunch o' young'uns. And jest look at them thar chests stickin' out when they'uns is talkin' about that thar' speakin' thing they call a public address system."

Yes, in 1949 the Bellevue Student Council completed the project they set for themselves one year ago. They purchased and installed the much-needed public address system in B.H.S. It's no wonder visitors to Bellevue were impressed by the council's accomplishments, for they sponsored a courtesy campaign, put over the biggest and best homecoming celebration in B.H.S. history, and then refereed the scholarship race. Quite a list of accomplishments for thirteen representatives!

STUDENT COUNCIL IN SESSION

CENTER: Charles Schott, President of Senior Hi-Y and Mr. Herbert Wolfe, club adviser; (reading counter-clockwise) Melvin Koch, Don Yingling, Bill Sprankel, Bill Dunn, Bob Kaiser, Bob Holstein, Wayne Todd, and Don Adams.

A visitor at the Y.M.C.A. on a Monday night would find talks, programs, devotional services, and fun, as the two Hi-Y clubs of B.H.S. meet together.

The clubs have been fortunate this year in hearing informal talks by business and professional men of Bellevue on many different subjects. Movies, a Mother-Son banquet, and an outing at the Y.M.C.A. camp were other programs.

A political rally, staged in the B.H.S. auditorium just before the National election, was an outstanding Hi-Y achievement, since it was the first of its kind in the history of the club and perhaps of B.H.S. Bill Dunn, as general chairman, planned details. Colorful posters and decorations and a parading band formed a setting for the speeches. Ted Fox spoke in behalf of Mr. Dewey, and Harold Colvin spoke for President Truman, with Miss Mary Cooper, social science teacher, serving as chairman.

An honor came to the local club and to its president, in the election of Charles Schott as president of the District Hi-Y organization. In this capacity he also served as a member of the State Hi-Y Council when it met in Columbus.

Six members, accompanied by Mr. Wolfe, adviser, attended the District Conference at Lima.

Funds to send several members to Camp

Nelson Dodd during the summer of 1949 were earned by sponsoring dances after football games and by selling electric light bulbs.

A most popular girls' organization at B.H.S. is the Y-Teen Club under the supervision of Miss Janet Foulkes.

Clementine and her new "gal friends" romped in games after a hay ride in the fall, had a splendid time at the Orphans' Christmas Party, and danced gaily at the Hi-Y-Teen Semi-Formal.

The girls showed Clem their serious side when they held a discussion on International Relations with Miss Mary Cooper as guest speaker and when they planned a program on the Fine Arts.

Clementine was an adopted daughter at the Mother-Daughter Banquet in May. She also joined in the seniors' farewell to Y-Teen life at the senior slumber party before graduation.

"I'd sure like to make a new dress and larn how to cook on them new-fangled cook stoves!" said Clementine wistfully to Mrs. Redd, F.H.A. adviser. "Kin I jine your club?"

Clem listened in amazement as Mrs. Redd told her of the F.H.A. annual Jitney supper, of their square dance, their Mothers' Tea, and the Achievement Night. Clem found the cookies baked for the "Winter Wonder Land" formal most tasty.

The newest club in B. H. S. is F. T. A.

The Zella Bell chapter of the Future Teachers of America is the newest organization in B.H.S. Its name honors Miss Zella Bell, a former teacher of most of the members.

After the initiation of the fourteen charter members on February 16, luncheon meetings were held every two weeks in the home economics laboratory for brief programs on the teaching profession. Then, in order that the future teachers might be aided in making a choice of teaching levels, members were given opportunities to do substitute teaching in the various grade levels and in high school.

MEMBERS

The complete list of charter members includes four seniors: Nancy Arnold, Barbara Bandy, Marilyn Downs, and Jean White; four juniors: Ruth Briehl, Gladys Moyer, Jack Weasner, and Peg Wilhelm; four sophomores: Marilyn Lutz, Nancy Lou Mitchell, Shirley Mizer and Nancy Wolfe; and two freshmen: Marcia Drexel and Joyce Kautzman.

Miss Grace Kaiser, principal of McKim school, is chairman of the sponsors group, which includes Miss Catherine Bowersox, Miss Erma Buffington, Miss Mary Cooper, Miss Winifred Klein, Miss Eleanor Rosekelly, Miss Esther Schachtele, Mrs. Elsa Wager, Miss Ruth Walter, Miss Adeline Wright, and Miss Florence Yingling. Three sponsors attend each meeting.

Principal E. S. Glasgo has arranged for the assignments for practice teaching.

The F.T.A. is sponsored nationally by the National Education Association and locally by the Bellevue members of the Zeta Chapter of the Delta Kappa Gamma Sorority.

Among the most industrious miners at B.H.S. are the members of the Library Club who mine for information rather than gold. Members, giving up a free period each day, help mend and stamp the books on which other students stake claims.

Meetings are held monthly in the library. All money earned by the club is used for new library equipment.

All enjoy "Quiet CHRISTMAS" PLAY

LOOKS ANYTHING BUT QUIET!

At the top of the Yuletide festivities came the Christmas program highlighted by the comedy, "A Quiet Christmas," presented by the speech class under the direction of Miss Esther Schachtele.

In the one act, which takes place late in the afternoon of December 24, Tom and Jane Evans decide they don't want "A Quiet Christmas" and in confusion scurry around trying to find a tree, a turkey, their maid, presents, and friends to help them celebrate. But all ends well, and they do have a Merry Christmas.

The B.H.S. orchestra opened the program and the singing of the Mixed Choir sent the audience home with carols ringing in their ears.

Again this year the Spring Festival was a success with the Mixed Choir, Prelude Choir, Treble Clef, and Boys' Chorus each presenting fine selections.

The seventy-two members of the Mixed Choir sang in a League Choral Festival, April 8 at Norwalk. Dressed in the maroon robes, they made a striking appearance as they gave a program of religious and spiritual songs.

The Senior Quartet continued to have many engagements.

...I jine this hyar BAND?"

Concerts given by Bellevue High School's Symphonic Band of fifty-six pieces, drew large audiences in 1949, especially for the annual concert. The Marching Band aroused enthusiasm at football games with music and intricate marching formations. A smaller group, the Pep Band, played for basketball games, and under a student director, Scottie Abell, played for cheering practices.

Occasionally assisting the regular twirlers were Pat Arnold, Norma Radkey, Gail Sampson, and Dicky Heyman.

Those whose names are starred once played in the Marching Band only; those with two stars, in Symphonic Band only. A † indicates Pep Band as well as Marching and Symphonic Bands.

The band's rapid development is aided by six-weeks of summer school classes conducted by Director Rosenthal.

Clementine and Pete just couldn't keep quiet when the band began to play.

At the top-----SCHOLARSHIP

The list of students who have made the scholarship page is again long as B.H.S. keeps up its high scholarship average.

After exciting "downs" the Vocabulary Champ this year was determined to be Dolores Dupler, and the Spelling Champ, Nancy Lou Mitchel.

The students who made the honor roll every period are John Furlong, Nancy Mitchell, Theresa Sberna, Pat Scagnetti, Nancy Wolfe, Don Drewes, Willa Hogarth, Tom Beard, Alice Beiler, Juanita Bodey, Donelda Christman, Joan Cook, Bill Dunn, Dolores Dupler, Catherine Wyant, and Jean White.

The State D.A.R. Test was taken by Barbara Bandy, Dolores Dupler, Donelda Christman, and Catherine Wyant. Dolores Dupler placed high for Bellevue and received a medal from the State at a D.A.R. tea in Norwalk at the chapter house.

When the Elks sponsored an essay contest "Why Democracy Works" for students of Bellevue, York, and Thompson, Bellevue's Martha Woodard placed second, Bill Dunn, won third, Elinor Harper, fourth, and Betty Bauman, fifth. A Thompson student took first place.

Seniors who took the general scholarship test were Alice Beiler, Betty Beiler, Bill Dunn, Kate Wyant, Dolores Dupler, Donelda Christman, Newton Baker, Harold Vogel, Tom Beard, Jean White, Joann Radkey, Pauline Swedersky, Barbara Bandy, Lois Brandal, Marilyn Downs, Gail Rudd, Ted Fox, Tony Lupica, Hazel Karg, Charlie Schott, Joan Cook, Juanita Bodey, Irene Billie, Tom Beckley, Inajean Weishart, Nancy Arnold, and Nancy Decker.

As a result of preliminary scholarship tests a number of students won places on the team picked to represent the school in the District State Scholarship tests, held at Heidelberg College, May 7. The team consists of Barbara Archer, Marcia Drexel, Ed Monarchi, Gordon Sanders, Gary Adams, John Furlong, Paul Drewes, Nancy Pfeiffer, Joyce Kautzman, Elinor Harper, Nancy Mitchell, Nancy Moore, Rita Houck, John Reitz, Bob Holstein, Nancy Wolfe, Pat Scagnetti, Barbara Vonder Embse, Joann White, Joann Richards, Melvin Koch, Robert Raschke, Ann Crotcher, Charles Wright, Don Drewes, Jack Werner, Dick Hickman, Barbara Bores, Willa Hogarth, Joyce McKinney, Dolores Dupler, Catherine Wyant, Barbara Bandy, Charles Schott, Tom Beard, Tom Beckley, Pauline Swedersky, Bill Dunn, Harold Vogel, Donelda Christman, Joan Cook, and Alice Beiler.

A tug of war?—well, this picture symbolizes the keen rivalry of the three senior home rooms in the race for the scholarship plaque. Don Yingling, (left) representing room 117, received the coveted trophy for his room the first grade period. The next two periods, Bill Dunn (center) received the trophy for room 210. The fourth grade period, Norbert Brown, (right) representing room 108, proudly carried it back to his room. As the picture implies, when the Comet went to press it was anybody's guess as to which room would win the plaque for the last two grade periods.

It was during the third six-weeks period that room 210, broke the scholarship average record with a so-far all-time high of 3.0388.

SPORTS

FOOTBALL draws large crowds

After surprising the powerful opposition in their first two encounters of the season, the Sampson-coached Redmen Gridders were weakened by an injury plague and finished with a season record of three wins, one tie, and five losses. However, the remaining team members continued the fight with the undaunted team-spirit of all good athletes.

- The Season

Bellevue, 6—Fremont St. Joe, 6

Bellevue's Gridsters surprised a powerful Fremont St. Joe eleven Friday, September 11, when they put the only blemish on the Fremonters' 1948 record by battling them to a 6 to 6 tie. Ed Soldano, Bellevue's flashy little halfback, scored in the fourth period for the Redmen's only touchdown. The contest proved disastrous to the Redmen, as co-Captain Harry Coe was removed from action for several weeks with a dislocated shoulder and Jim Lepley was knocked unconscious and removed to a Fremont hospital.

Bellevue, 21—Upper Sandusky, 6

On September 24, the Redmen defeated a powerful Upper Sandusky squad at Harmon Field, 21 to 6. Terry Ruppert plunged for two touchdowns and Ed Soldano for the other. Little "Toe" Jim Lepley booted three conversions.

Bellevue, 12—Crestline, 24

Bellevue was handed its first grid loss of the season, October 1, as Crestline trampled them, 24 to 12, at Harmon Field. Fullback Terry Ruppert bulled his way over for both of the Bellevue touchdowns.

Bellevue, 24—Willard, 13

The loss of four regulars did not hinder the Redmen, October 8, as they set back the Willard Crimson Flashes, 24 to 13. Halfbacks Ed Soldano, Bob Harris, and Sam DeBlase and fullback Terry Ruppert each made six of the Redmen's total.

Bellevue, 0—Norwalk, 27

Norwalk accomplished what no other team has been able to do in the last two years; they held the Redmen scoreless throughout the entire contest and won, 27 to 0, in a game, at Norwalk, October 15.

Bellevue, 13—Shelby, 16

A chubby substitute tackle booted a field goal for Shelby, October 22, and changed the score from a tie to a 16-13 victory for the Whippets in the final 30 seconds of play. Ed Soldano was the big man for Bellevue as he crossed the last white stripe twice. Milt Bruckner grabbed a pass for the extra point.

Bellevue, 20—Galion, 19

After trailing Galion the entire contest, the Redmen pulled ahead in the last three minutes when Milt Bruckner caught a touchdown pass and Harry Coe booted the point that gave the Bellevue team a 20 to 19 win. Scintillating Ed Soldano plunged for both the other touchdowns. A Bellevue back fumbled on a plunge for the extra point play, but Jim Kovacs pounced on the ball in the end zone and the point was good.

NINE seniors win "B's" in FOOTBALL

Bellevue, 12—Port Clinton, 13

Bellevue ended the regular grid season, November 12, when they took a 13 to 12 lacing at the hands of Port Clinton. The Redmen led all the way, but the Redskins scored a touchdown and point just before the timer's gun. Halfback Ed Soldano, playing his last high-school contest, came to the limelight again as he bucked the line for both the Bellevue touchdowns.

Bellevue, 13—Bucyrus, 20

Bellevue started off in the role of giant killer again, November 5, as they drew first blood in the Bucyrus game, but the Bucyrusmen soon caught hold of themselves and marched on to a 20 to 13 victory over the Redmen. Milt Bruckner scored once on an end-around play and again when he grabbed a desperate pass. Harry Coe booted the extra point.

The Senior Lettermen

Co-Captain HARRY COE — Tackle: "Knocker," in his third year on the varsity, lived up to his name, by being one of the roughest linemen in the league. His ability was well-known because he made all-league tackle for two years, despite a dislocated shoulder suffered in the Fremont St. Joseph game.

Co-Captain ED SOLDANO — halfback: "Eddie" was high scorer for the Redmen this year which is unusual because, besides carrying the ball, he had the added burden of calling the signals. He was named to the second Northern Ohio League team at left-halfback.

MILTON BRUCKNER—end: "Milt," bringing his four years of football to a dazzling climax, was selected on the Associated Press All-Ohio First team at right end, for the second time on the all-league team, and also was chosen outstanding lineman of the league. For three years Milt terrorized opponents by his ability to catch passes and his famous "end-around."

JIM KOVACS—tackle: A monogram winner for three years, "Big Jim," shifted from center to tackle in his senior year to become one of the hardest tackles on the team.

DON YINGLING—guard: Don won his second major award at guard by being the pluckiest man on the team. He used his 145 pounds to advantage, often opening up holes against much larger opponents.

RONNIE KONST—center: Ronnie was the strong center around which the team was built. In addition to playing well on offense, he kept the opponents from going through his tackle on defense.

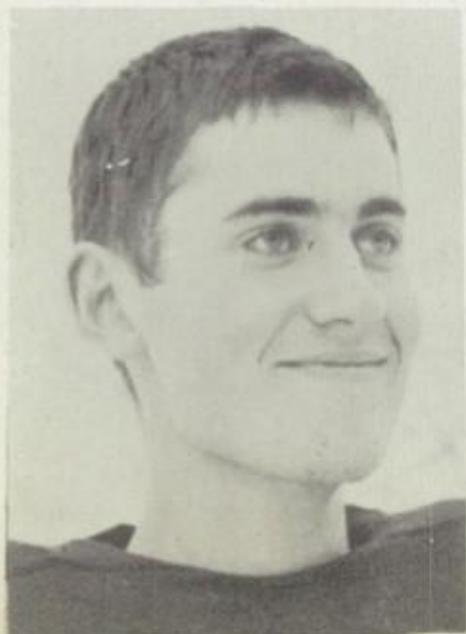

BILL CRAMER—Tackle and guard: Bill won his first major award by being a constant worker on offense and defense. His determined play in the line was a distinct asset to the team.

JIM LEPLEY—quarterback and halfback: Jimmy played in the first three games, being taken out of the Crestline game with a broken collar-bone. His speed and defensive ability was greatly missed by the team throughout the year.

TED FOX—quarterback: Ted was first-string quarterback until his leg was broken in a practice session shortly before the first game. His absence was a blow to the team.

Major letters were earned by the following underclassmen: Donald Baldwin, Terry Ruppert, Santo Nasonti, Bob Dunn, Dick Hickman, Sam DeBlase, Jack Drexel, Dick Keeler, and Ed Hartzell.

Underclassmen who earned minor letters during the football season were the following: Ted Ball, Harold Colvin, Dick Ruffing, Roger Siesel, Claude Springer and Bill Cudnik.

"Queen Jean" reigns at HOMECOMING

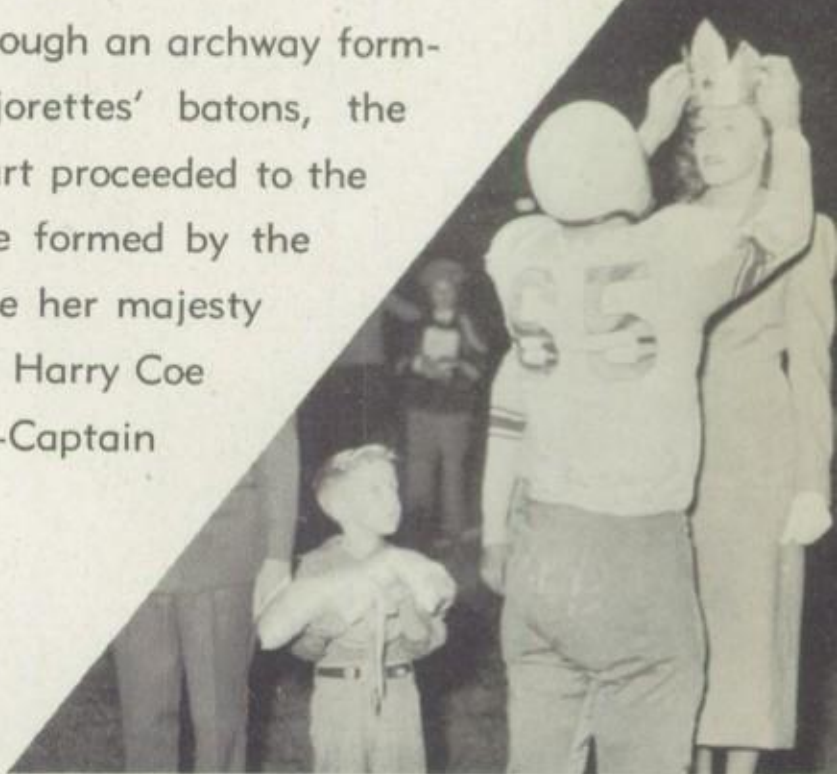

Smiling Queen Inajean Weishart arrived at Harmon Field, November 8, to reign over the Bellevue-Bucyrus game in the third annual Homecoming celebration.

Entering through an archway formed by the majorettes' batons, the queen and her court proceeded to the center of a horseshoe formed by the high school band. There her majesty was crowned by co-Captain Harry Coe and presented flowers by co-Captain Edward Soldano.

Queen Inajean was escorted by Charles Schott and attended by Barbara Gross and Joanne Radkey, seniors; Ruth Briehl, junior; Theresa Windsor, sophomore; and Beverly Long, freshman. The attendants were escorted by Bob Yingling, Tob Beard Don Drewes, Don Adams, and Dick Warden. Jane and Eddie Todd, twins, were the flower girl and the crown bearer.

"One of the thirty-two best teams in the state," said Tournament Manager Carl Mackey as he handed Captain Jimmy Lepley the trophy for the runners-up of the District tourney at Sandusky. This was the third honor carried home by Bellevue's fighting basketball quintet during the 1948-1949 season, the other two being the winners' trophy from the Sectional Tournament and second place position in the Northern Ohio League. All this was pleasing to Coach Joe Ayers in his first year as head basketball mentor and to his assistants Kenny Sampson and Ed Allen.

CAPTAIN JIMMY LEPLEY completed his second year of varsity competition with the title of chief play-maker for the Redmen. Jimmy's skill this year earned him a position on the first team in both Sectional and District Tourneys at Sandusky and a guard spot on the team of the mythical all-N.O.L. squad.

MILT BRUCKNER, who turned on a dazzling scoring spree, set a record for a B.H.S. player with 30 points in the Galion tilt. Milt won first-team spots in the Sectional and District Tourney selections, the outstanding player award in the Northern Ohio League, and a position on the third all-Ohio squad.

HARRY COE didn't make many points but his rebound ability, especially in the tournament play at Sandusky, was an important factor in preventing last-minute rallies by the opposition.

ART LONG, a junior and the Redmen's tallest player, held a forward spot for the Bellevueans. His ambidexterous shooting and rebound ability helped the Redmen in several close contests and placed him in a forward position on the second team in the Sandusky District Tourney.

TED FOX, whose job was to hold down the high scorers of the opposition, performed his task creditably. Ted received an honorable mention in the N.O.L. choices for his work.

SAM DE BLASE, speedy sophomore surprised many of his opponents with his shifty passes. Not having tried out for either varsity or reserves his freshman year, Sam surprised almost everyone when he moved into a first team job midway in the season and was selected on the second all-star team at the Sandusky Tournament.

DICK HICKMAN was one of the spark plugs of the second team. On the varsity, too he often showed his ball-handling ability.

SANDY NASONTI, junior, was a capable replacement at either forward or center and could always be counted on for points in any contest in which he played.

DON ADAMS, sophomore, worked in smoothly with the first five and was always a consistent scorer in any game in which he participated.

CLEM KOSELKE, could always find an advantageous place to whip the sphere.

Bellevue, 38—Alumni, 37

With Captain Jim Lepley making Bellevue's first point of the year, the Redmen successfully opened the '48-'49 cage season November 26, by defeating a determined Alumni squad, 38-37.

Bellevue, 44—Bowling Green, 42

Rallying in the hectic fourth quarter, the local lads scored a 44-42 victory here over the veteran smooth-working Bee-Gee Bobcats before a capacity crowd.

Bellevue, 20—Findlay, 28

The action of the preceding night and the long bus ride to Findlay produced a weary Redmen quintet, December 3, with the result that the defending State Champs of Findlay sent Bellevue home with a 28-20 defeat.

Bellevue, 43—Lorain, 47

Despite their second half rally, the Redmen fell prey to a red-hot Lorain Steeler outfit, 43-47, December 6 in Lorain.

Bellevue, 43—Upper Sandusky, 39

Successfully opening their defense of the N.O.L. crown, the locals defeated the Rams of Upper Sandusky, 43-39, in an exciting contest, which changed leads eight times.

Bellevue, 44—Ashland, 42

Lady luck shone on the Redmen, December 14, as Bellevue came from behind in the last minutes to defeat the Ashland "A's", 44-42, on the home court.

Bellevue, 39—Willard, 34

The Redmen ran into unexpected strength at Willard, December 17, but B.H.S. managed to hand the Railroaders a 39-34 defeat for Bellevue's second N.O.L. victory.

Summary of season's GAMES

Bellevue, 29—Norwalk, 31

The Redmen five suffered their first N.O.L. defeat in two years when the Norwalk Raiders handed them a 31-29 setback.

Bellevue, 43—Ashland, 44

In one of the games of a four-school holiday Basketball Carnival played at Fremont, the Redmen were defeated in a close game by the revenge-seeking Ashland "A's," 44-43.

Bellevue, 39—Fremont, 38

On the following night, December 30, because of bad weather the carnival games at Ashland were postponed until January 1, when the Redmen managed to slide by the Ross High Little Giants, 39-38, with an exciting rally in the final canto. Fox's free throw in the final 6 seconds gave the Redmen their win.

Bellevue, 47—Port Clinton, 45

Bellevue, minus the services of Captain Lepley, ran into the so-far undefeated Redskins of Port Clinton, January 7, at the Port City, only to provide an unexpected upset by handing the Bay City rivals a 47-45 loss.

Bellevue, 56—Galion, 32

The local fought to a 56-32 win over the Galion Tygers, January 14, on the Redmen's home court. Milt Bruckner broke individual scoring record with his collection of 30 points.

Bellevue, 44—Mansfield, 37

The Redmen scalped the Tygers of Mansfield here, January 18, by a 44-37 score. The team of former Bellevue Coach, Vern Hoffman, just couldn't hold the Redmen, as Bruckner scored 18 points to lead both teams in individual scoring.

Bellevue, 53—Shelby, 46

Bellevue ran into the league-leading Whip-pets at Shelby, January 21, and returned home with a 53-46 victory. Although their first-half lead was not impressive, the Redmen's defense tightened in the second half to give them the victory, and temporary possession of the N.O.L. leadership.

Bellevue, 40—Bucyrus, 54

The Redmen quintet was outclassed, January 28, when the Bucyrus Redmen took the N.O.L. lead by defeating Bellevue, 54-40.

Bellevue, 60—Fremont Ross, 28

The Bellevue Redmen surprised the fans, February 1, when B.H.S. turned on the heat and sent Fremont Ross home with a 60-28 drubbing after Bellevue had beaten the same team by just one point in the basketball carnival, a month before.

Bellevue, 45—Port Clinton, 44

The Redmen had to fight to send a revenge-seeking P.C. squad home with a 45-44 defeat, February 6. Bruckner sank a free throw during the last few hectic seconds of play to give the Bellevue boys a 45-44 win.

Bellevue, 52—Elyria, 51

Again Bruckner's successful last-second free throw was sufficient to hand the Elyria Pioneers a 52-51 defeat, February 8, in a game played there. This was the Redmen's thirteenth win of the season.

Bellevue, 72—Crestline, 35

Bellevue, trounced the Crestline five, 72-35, here, February 11 in the final N.O.L. game for the Redmen.

Bellevue, 67—Norwalk, 48

Bellevue turned the tables, February 18, when B.H.S. trounced the Norwalk Raiders, 67-48, here before a capacity crowd.

The Redmen ended their regular season with a record of 15 wins to 6 losses and as a result, were top-seeded in the Sandusky Sectional Tourney, which began March 1.

SECTIONAL TOURNAMENT

Bellevue, 52—Norwalk, 29

Bellevue entered the first round of the Sandusky Tourney, March 2, by defeating their arch-rivals, the Raiders of Norwalk, by a resounding score of 52-29.

Bellevue, 46—Sandusky, 33

Bellevue gained revenge on Sandusky by defeating the Blue Streaks, 46-33, before a packed house on March 4.

Bellevue, 53—Port Clinton, 52

Before a crowd which jammed the Sandusky Junior High gym, in the finals, the fighting Redmen of Bellevue froze the ball for the last minute to hand the Redskins of Port Clinton a 53-52 defeat. Captain Lepley received the Sectional trophy on behalf of his team.

On Sunday, March 6, drawings took place for the District Tourney, with Bellevue drawing Toledo Whitmer, and Mansfield drawing Fostoria.

THE DISTRICT TOURNAMENT

Bellevue, 60—Whitmer, 30

The Redmen had little trouble trampling the highly-favored Toledo Whitmer crew, 60-30, March 11.

Bellevue, 43—Mansfield, 74

The Redmen's '48-'49 basketball season came to an abrupt end Saturday, March 12, when the powerful Tygers of Mansfield toppled the Redmen, 74-43. This game ended the high-school basketball careers of Bruckner, Lepley, Fox, and Coe. The 1948-49 cage

FRESHMAN cagers win 6, lose 5

Both the Freshman and Junior High basketball squads ended their seasons with good records of 6 wins to 5 set-backs.

In March Coach Ed Allen and his boys were hosts to the Northern District of the N.O.L. Junior-High League for their first night of tournament play. Since requirements for players in the junior-high tourney state that a player must be 15 years old or under and in the ninth grade or under, the Bellevue squad for these games was made up of players from both the freshman and junior high teams.

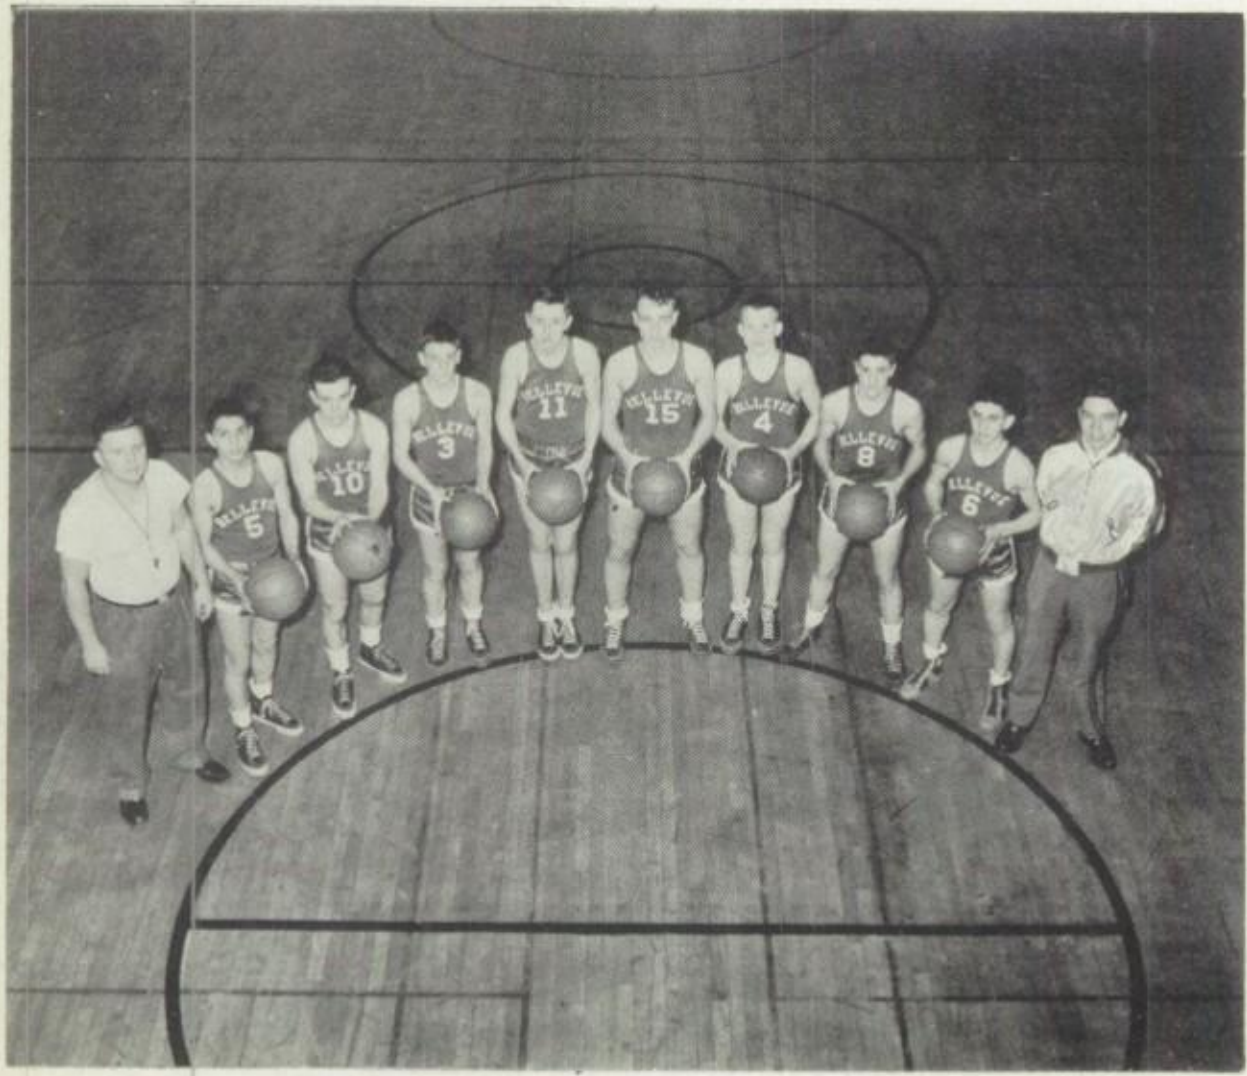

After the contest here, the teams of the Northern District journeyed to Norwalk, where the Bellevue lads became district winners. While the Northern District games were being played, the teams of the Southern District were competing at Galion, with Galion, the host team, taking district honors. Later, the two district winners battled it out with a final score of Galion 39, Bellevue 20.

1948 Track Season

In the first meet of the season, on April 7, the Bellevue cindermen defeated Tiffin Columbian, 75-43, and thus made a good beginning for the season.

Other Dual meets were scheduled with Galion, Ashland, Fremont, and Port Clinton; and entries were made in the Mansfield, Fremont, Ohio Wesleyan, and DeVilbiss relays; and entries were also made in the league, district, and state meets.

Reporting to Coach Kenny Sampson were over thirty boys including these seven lettermen: Milt Bruckner (mile, mile relay), Tom Beard (pole vault), Ted Fox (discus, half mile), Don Baldwin (half mile, high jump), Jim Kovacs (shot put, discus), Don Adams (100, 220, half mile relay), and Dick Hickman (high and low hurdles). Others who scored points in 1948 and returned to compete in 1949 are Dick Keeler (100, shot put), Ted Ball (high and low hurdles), and Melvin Koch (440, mile relay).

Promising new prospects are Hal Vogel, Carl Mira, Denny Irons, and Sam De Blase.

1949 Track Season

Under the direction of Coach Del Johnson, Bellevue's tracksters finished successfully their third post-war season.

League Meet: Upper Sandusky (first) 63 1/2
Bellevue (second) 60

In the league meet, the Redmen were squeezed out for the second consecutive year by the Upper Sandusky Rams. Bellevue had apparently won the meet, until the mile relay team was disqualified; Upper Sandusky was then declared winner.

In the district meet, Jack Gabel qualified for the state meet in the shot put; and Milt Bruckner, in the mile. At Columbus, Milt placed sixth in the state, establishing a new school record of 4:33:8 for the mile.

Prospecting Pete really enjoyed bringing his lunch practically every noon of the year, and he grew accustomed to swinging a bat or hitting a ball.

Nearly every boy in B.H.S. competed in one or more of the intramural sports which were under the direction of Mr. Ed Allen, and managers, Ted Buck and Bill Dunn.

The boys' intramurals closed with soft ball, which was in progress at the time this book went to press.

G. A. A.--"Gold all around?" asks Pete

Exciting games in the GIRLS' INTRAMURAL athletic schedule were played almost every Tuesday and Thursday during the school year. Championships were determined in soccer, volleyball, and basketball. In addition, two girls' all-star basketball teams were chosen for an exhibition game on Sports Night when work of regular gym classes was also demonstrated. The girls' championship teams are pictured and listed here.

Points earned by participation in intramurals lead to membership in G.A.A., eighty joints being required.

WINNERS OF THE "B"

When 250 points have been earned, the coveted girls' athletic "B" is the reward. Six seniors received this honor in their junior year. They are Barbara Bandy, Alice Beiler, Betty Beiler, Betty La Pata, Louise Papke, and Kitty Pittenger. Those earning the "B" in 1949 are Dorothy Branco, Nancy Decker, Joan Gibson, Barbara Gross, Alice Hunter, Phyllis Meyer, Loretta Nuby, Sally Ocker, Peggy Wilhelm, Kathryn Wireman, Martha Woodard, Leona Claus, Gladys Moyer, Jeanette Siesel, and Virginia Wongler.

A black and white illustration of a woman in a cowboy hat writing the word 'Clementine' in cursive on a chalkboard. The woman is shown from the side, wearing a dark dress with a light-colored belt and a wide-brimmed cowboy hat. She is holding a piece of chalk and has just finished writing the word 'Clementine' in a flowing, cursive script. The chalkboard is dark with a white border, and the word is written in white. The entire illustration is set within a white rectangular frame.
